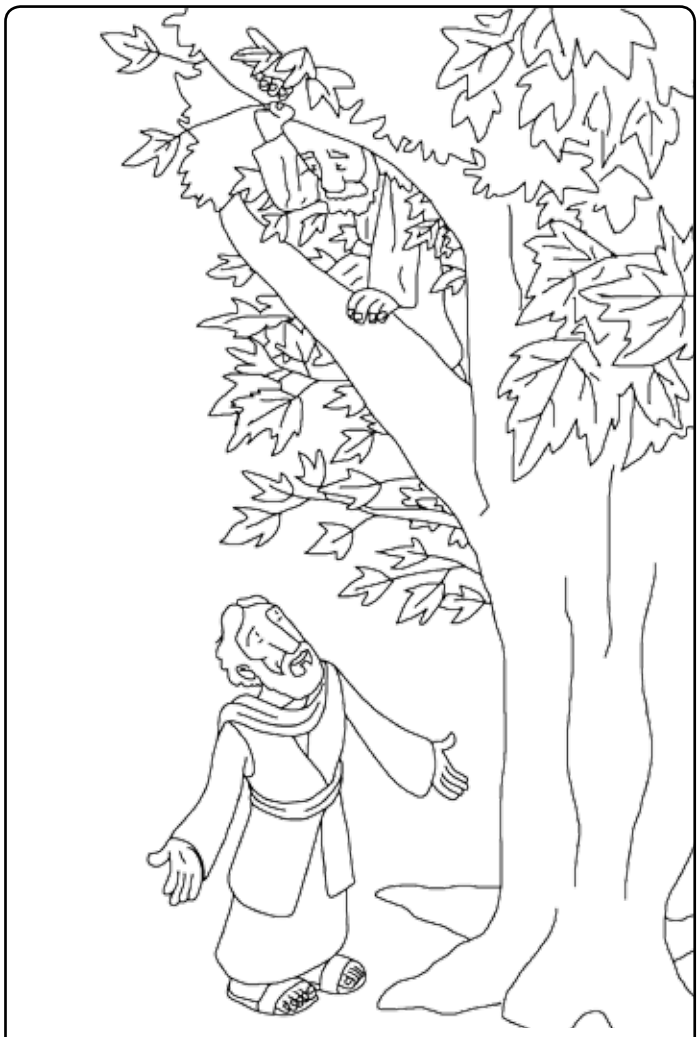
Luke 19.1-10

Jesus speaks to Zacchaeus, an unpopular tax collector, who is up a tree in Jericho. Jesus invites himself back to Zacchaeus' house and changes the man's life.

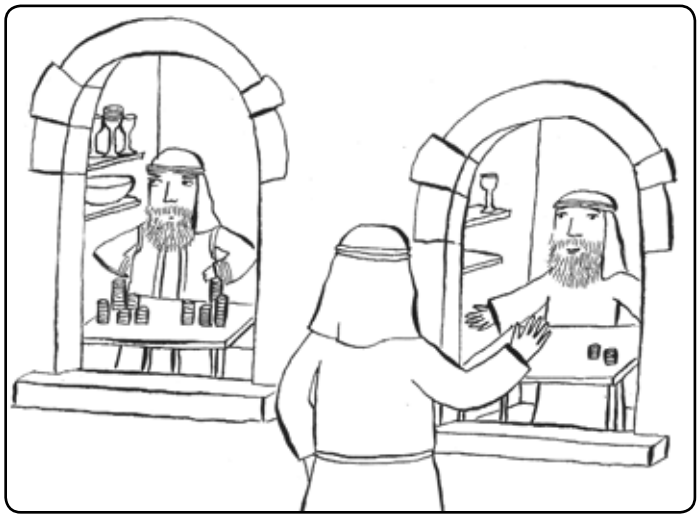
Have you ever had a surprise visitor?



Jesus says, 'Come down Zacchaeus, I am coming to your house today.'

Activity 1

Zacchaeus' life changed after he met Jesus. Spot five differences between his life before and his life afterwards.



Activity 2

Zacchaeus knew that he had been saved. Crack the code to find out what Jesus said to him.

PRAYER

Forgive us, Lord, when we only invite our friends to eat or play with us, and not those who are lonely. As you have been kind to us, so may we be kind to others. Amen.

Live in faith

Look out for someone who is left out or lonely this week. Try to include them in something or invite them home for tea.
