

Christ has no
body now on earth
but yours, no hands but
yours, no feet but yours, yours are the eyes through which Christ's compassion is to look out to the earth, yours are the feet by which he is to go about doing good and yours are the hands by which he is to bless
us now.

Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours, yours are the eyes through which Christ's compassion is to look out to the earth, yours are the feet by which he is to go about doing good and yours are the hands by which he is to bless us now.

Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours, yours are the eyes through which Christ's compassion is to look out to the earth, yours are the feet by which he is to go about doing good and yours are the hands by which he is to bless us now.

Christ has no
body now on earth
but yours, no hands but
yours, no feet but yours,
yours are the eyes through
which Christ's compassion is to
look out to the earth, yours
are the feet by which he is
to go about doing good and
yours are the hands by
which he is to bless
us now.

Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours, yours are the eyes through which Christ's compassion is to look out to the earth, yours are the feet by which he is to go about doing good and yours are the hands by which he is to bless us now.

Christ has no
body now on earth
but yours, no hands but
yours, no feet but yours,
yours are the eyes through
which Christ's compassion is to
look out to the earth, yours
are the feet by which he is
to go about doing good and
yours are the hands by
which he is to bless
us now.