

Share stories of when you have been cared for.

Have a moment of silence and think about your church community.

Explain to a friend how you could show care for someone else.

Encourage each other to do the things you've just talked about.

Pray for each person in your group as they try to care for others.