

Mark 6.14-29

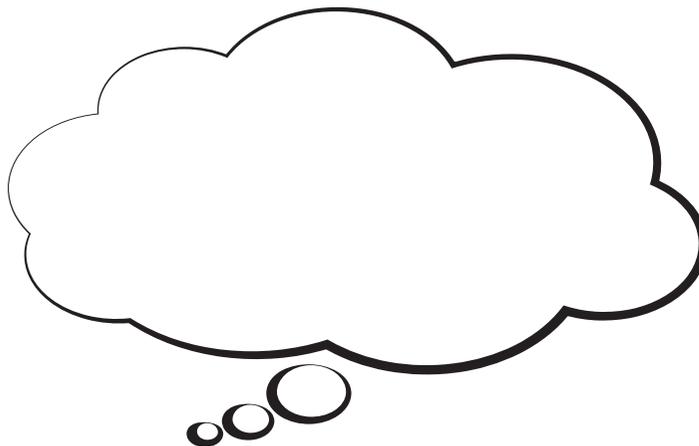

On his birthday, Herod made a foolish promise and ended up having to kill John the Baptist who he respected as a holy man.

Herod's stepdaughter asks for John the Baptist to be killed, but will he do the right thing?

Draw what sort of things or people Herod might have been thinking about, as he tried to decide what to do.

Circle the people/things which are helpful to listen to or follow. Cross out the ones you think are less helpful.

Write a diary entry as if you are Herod for the day, in this story. How does he feel about what happened?
