

Who do you want to pray for? Fill in the blanks. In the first space, write down the name of a country or a group of people. In the second space, think of an action you could take to help. Take this home to remind you of your prayers and actions this week.

Protector God, we pray for all those who have been forced to leave their homes because of conflict, natural disaster or threat of persecution. In particular, I pray for Help all the different organisations who help refugees. Give compassion to our global leaders to try and manage these big problems with compassion and fairness.

Sometimes the world's problems can seem overwhelming and unchangeable, but we know you are the God who rescues. In this broken world, may we be your hands and feet. Help me as I

Amen.
